Maxwell St. Days on for next weekend

Chicago's Maxwell St., renowned for years as a hot spot for a good buy, will set the theme once again for the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry's sidewalk sale spectacular, the Maxwell Street Days promotion.

Scheduled for July 31 to August 2 at the heart of Antioch's business district on Main and Lake Sts., as well as in the Antioch Shopping Plaza, Maxwell Street Days promises to bring shoppers a variety of goods at exceptionally tempting prices.

"Maxwell Street Days allows area residents to pick up some real bargains and gives retailers a chance to make room for their fall and winter inventories," said Laddie A. Korecek, chairman of the Chamber's retail group.

A total of 31 retailers will display their goods in front of their stores for these three days.

Local retailers who belong to the Chamber sponsor and finance the yearly event, along with Moonlight Madness, which will be held August 28.

Village board designates odd/even watering days

Because of the excess use of water in recent weeks, causing the overworking of the new well, the Antioch Village Board made a motion asking the people to limit the watering of lawns and gardens to odd and even days.

With Main St. as a dividing line, the people living on the east side of Main St. are asked to do their watering on even dates and the people on the west side of Main St. are asked to water on days with odd number dates. Everyone's cooperation will be appreciated.

Each participant will receive a complimentary Bucky Banker t-shirt from the State Bank. Tennis balls will also be provided by the Bank.

Village Board mediates Oakwood Knolls dispute

Following complaints made at the committee meeting of the Antioch Village Board last week, residents of the Oakwood Knolls subdivision returned to the regular meeting of the board on Monday to settle what amounts to a neighborhood dispute on access and parking problems in the area of Park Ave. going north from Lake Ave.

Joseph Bauer, 167 Lakewood Dr. appeared with a petition reportedly signed by 50 to 60 people.

The petition asked that Park Ave., going north from Lake Ave., be opened for parking and also asked that a gravel base be put down on the area.

Mayor Mike Maley said that he had thought that the main problem was the dust factor but after talking to the people involved realized that there was a parking problem along with others having to do with boat access, bicycles and dogs.

Howard May, voiced the opinion of many of those living in the area that, although they maintained the property, there was no objection to people using it but there was an objection to a road being put through it.

Attorney Andrew Lynch answered a query concerning maintenance leading to eventual possession by saying that although the people in the area maintained the property it would always remain village property unless vacated by the village.

Joseph Veith, president of the Oakwood Knolls Property Owners Association said that the purpose of the association was to handle problems in Oakwood Knolls and the problem before the board had not been brought before the association where it might have been settled without involving the village board.

At this point Haley said that the board was there to help all the residents of Antioch when asked to do so.

All those residents present seemed satisfied with the board proposal of settling the dust problem with the seal coating and Haley's suggestion that the board sit down with the people and through mediation, attempt to find an amicable solution to the dispute.

Other business transacted at the board meeting included the board taking the necessary approval steps to finalize the annexation of the Pedersen property, which is bounded by Rt. 173, Rt. 59, Bayview Dr. and Lake Marie.

The board took the same steps in completing the annexation of the Koziol property, consisting of eight lots located in the industrial section off of Anita Dr.

Don Amundsen, finance chairman, received approval of his motions: to participate in the purchase of window blinds for the Safety Building, with the village paying one third of the cost of $786.10, the other two thirds being picked up by the First Fire District and the Antioch Fire Fighters Association; to accept the landscaping bid of Lon Eslinger and Co. of $6,431.50, subject to further negotiations concerning the deletion or alteration of some items to decrease the cost, the village being liable for one half of the cost.

Ron Cunningham received approval on his motions: to accept the bid of Able Fire and Safety Equipment Inc., in the amount of $1,584 for the purchase of two rescue saws and steel carrying cases, purchase to be paid out of revenue sharing; to hire Dennis Granfield as patrolman in the Antioch Police Dept.; to rescind the hiring of Steven Kussman as patrolman in the Antioch Police Dept.

Vern Barnstable, public works and buildings chairman, received approval on motions to: authorize the public works dept. to seal coat the access road to the Oakwood Knolls boat dock; to authorize the village engineer to revise the floodplain regulations; to advertise for bids for a three-quarter ton truck, with four wheel drive and snow plow, bids to be opened on Monday, August 4.

The only other important action taken by the board was the approval of the payment of $18,750 to A.I. Painting Co. for the painting of the tank and tower on Toft Ave.

SHE WAS NUMBER ONE — Pictured above is Darlene Olsen showing the form that made her a trophy winner at last year's State Bank of Antioch Youth Singles Tennis Tournament. Darlene was the first place winner in the girls 16-17 age division. This year's tournament is being held August 8 and 9 at Doc Jensen Park courts and ACHS courts. All boys and girls in Antioch and outlying areas are encouraged to enter whether they are experienced tennis players or just beginning. Entry blanks may be picked up at the State Bank and must be turned in by August 1st to the Marketing Dept. at the State Bank.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

The Antioch News office is all abuzz about our nifty subscription premium of tickets to the famous Circus World Museum when you subscribe to The News. I understand boys and girls can also earn free Circus World tickets by selling subscriptions to their friends and neighbors. Good way to spend the rest of summer vacation. Tell 'em Annie Mae says so!

Well, I don't know how all you folks are keeping cool during our current heat wave but Annie Mae's spending a lot of time at the Aqua Center and the Antioch Theater.

Saw Mary Poppins for the 10th time last Friday. Love that Julie Andrews!

I hear congratulations are in order at the Brook household. It seems Bill Brook, after a 10 year wait, is finally a "dog-granddaddy."

His beautiful labrador Jet finally presented him with a puppy. At last report, both baby and mamma were doing fine.

Russ Fairchild, Antioch's roving reporter asks: "What's wrong with Jim Fields?"

"For a man who needs all the political help he can get, he sure blew it with me this morning at the Bee Hive, where in my article of Jan. 12 in both Antioch papers, I gave him yet another plug. How many roving reporters are there strolling on two canes?"

I received a call from Colby Johnson the other day, asking if we had heard anything about the new cable tv setups in the area being at all responsible for the bad tv reception so many of us have encountered with watching the tube in recent weeks.

Colby reports that a friend in Round Lake, where they have just initiated a new cable tv program, claims that when his next door neighbor disconnects his cable tv apparatus, the area's regular reception is much better.

Well, that might bear some investigation. Our erratic weather, supposedly caused by Mt. Helen's antics, has shouldered much of the blame to date.

Saw pretty Dawn Flashner, this year's Miss Antioch, a few days ago and she was quite excited about her first appearance outside the village as Miss Antioch.

Dawn rode in the Independence Day parade in Waukegan and said she really had a "blast."

Sorry to hear about Chamber of Commerce Secretary Dixie Sparks' "nose to nose" confrontation with Bernie Guntty's cymbals at the Art Fair.

Now Dixie, that's really a new excuse for all that black and blueness. It beats the old "walked into a door," routine.

If anyone finds some stray unidentified unmentionables floating around check with Audrey Reeves. It seems last week's storm caught her with her "pants down" off the clothes line that is.

Take note of the picture of that lovely wedding held at the Saw Mill on July 5. Not only was there a set of triplets in the wedding party but the finale with the bride and groom being picked up in a horse and buggy was really great.

The triplets were the Cermak trio of course, Ann was the bride of Ken Korus. Her sister Mary was a bridesmaid and her brother Joe, a groomsman.

Daddy, Jim Cermak was the chauffeur who really takes this energy conservation business to heart.

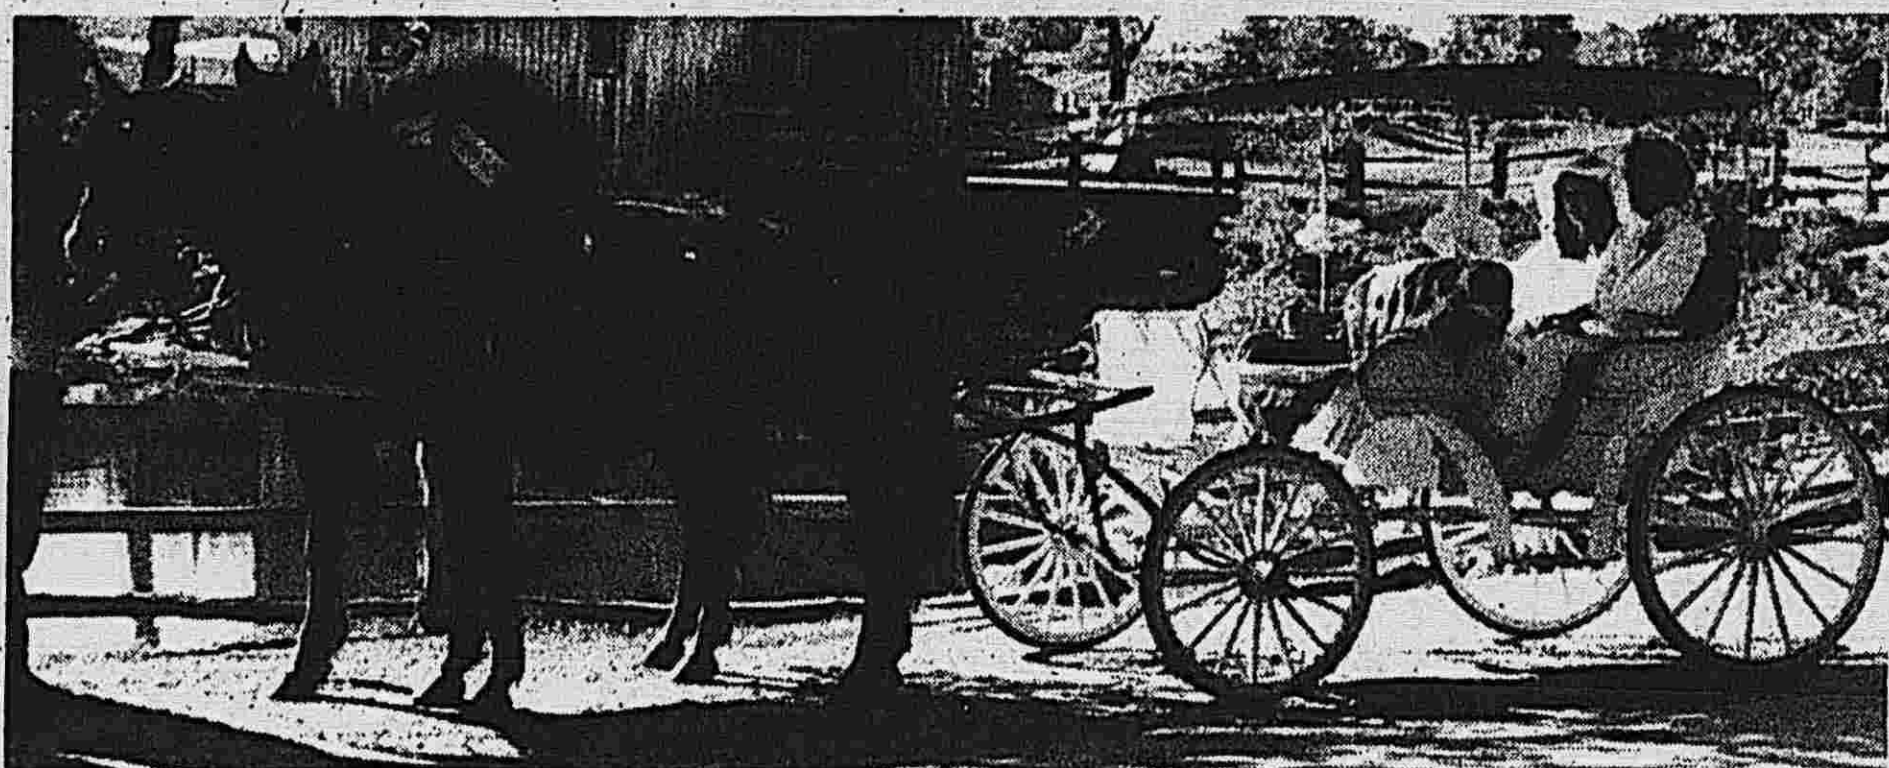

More congratulations, this time to Mayor Mike Haley, who'll be the mayor of the day at King Richard's Faire this Saturday. I think we should all go out there and cheer for Mike as he leads the parade around the fair.

The Antioch Rescue Squad welcomes two new members, Mark Reeves and Joe Bodame.

Looked in on the rehearsals of PM&L's "Gigi", last Thursday. The show is really shaping up. This one looks like it's going to be one of their best.

Old reliables, Ricky and Hank Apostol, were busy working behind the scenes, Hank with his trusty hammer putting together what appears to be a well-done and unusual set and Ricky running around with flashing needle, taking up a hem here or nipping in a waist there.

See you all at the Lake County Fair. My mouth is really watering for some cotton candy and how I love those prize winning animal auctions!

PICTURESQUE WEDDING—Wedding of Ann Cermak and Kenneth Korus took place at the Old Saw Mill on July 5. Besides the old fashioned setting and garb of the wedding party, the bride and groom left the wedding in a horse and buggy driven by the father of the bride, Jim Cermak. Ann is one of the Cermak triplets, the other two, Mary and Joe were members of the wedding party.

Grass Lake talks school upkeep

Grass Lake School Board of Education business at the July 8 meeting ranged from a discussion of summer maintenance programs to approving a new school board policy packet, Supt. Richard Hogan said.

Hogan said the design of the packet itself, not the policies it contains, has been changed. The former policy packet required complete reprinting every time a policy was changed. The new design separates various policies one per page, so that reprinting involves only a page at a time if a policy changes.

Summer maintenance at the school is progressing well, he said. Projects include redoing the floors, painting the fence and tree work.

Trustees agreed to seek permission to use the portable school building for another year, Hogan said. After the first five years of use, portable buildings must go up for review yearly. After an architect attests to the buildings' safety, the request goes to the regional superintendent.

Hogan said the board won't be able to finalize its next yearly budget until "the legislature makes its mind up" on school aid. Last year, legislators raised state aid about $100 per pupil. "It sounds good, but that still doesn't get you too far when other costs are rising so much," Hogan said.

The superintendent announced also that heating bills for last year decreased from the prior year's $9,164 to $9,036. "Considering that rates rose tremendously, a reduction is terrific," he said. "Our energy conservation measures have paid up."

Future Farmers picnic

The Future Farmers 4-H club wound up the 4-H year with an achievement fair and picnic on July 13.

The group enjoyed swimming, eating and volleyball, reported member Wendy Wells.

A judging of pigs was held and Michelle Elfering gave a talk on the activities of the club during the past year. Wendy Wells gave a talk on the talks and demonstrations that were held during the past year.

Members presented a gift to Mr. and Mrs. Wells for all their help during the year.

A man lived by the side of the road and sold hot dogs. He was hard of hearing so he had no radio. He had trouble with his eyes so he read no newspapers. But he sold good hot dogs. He put up a sign on the highway telling how good they were. He stood by the side of the road and cried: "Buy a hot dog, Mister!"

And people bought. He increased his meat and roll orders. He bought a bigger stove to take care of his trade. He got his son home from college to help him. But then something happened. His son said, "Father, haven't you been listening to the radio? If money stays 'tight', we are bound to have bad business. There may be a big depression coming on. You had better prepare for poor trade. Whereupon the father thought, "Well, my son has been to college. He reads the papers and listens to the radio, and he ought to know." So the father cut down on his meat and roll orders. Took down his advertising signs. And no longer bothered to stand on the highway to sell hot dogs. And his hot dog sales fell almost overnight. "You're right, son," the father said to the boy. "We are certainly headed for a depression."

Branwell judged insane

According to Assistant State's Attorney Michael Conroyd, Dr. Donald Branwell, formerly in dental practice in Antioch, was found not guilty by reason of insanity of the murder of his former roommate, Dr. Richard Kuelto on January 5.

Lake County Judge Harry D. Strouse handed down the not guilty decision on Tuesday, July 15.

Conroyd said that Branwell, who was still in need of psychiatric treatment, was remanded to the Lake County Mental Health Dept.

According to authorities Branwell stabbed Kuelto 97 times after an argument that began at the murder victim's home and continued after the victim was chased by Branwell.

After being arrested by authorities who were called by his brother, to whom he had confessed the "murder of Satan," Branwell was initially found competent to stand trial by Strouse but in the ensuing trial, testimony by psychiatrists Arthur Woloshin and Dover Roth said that the defendant was "anxious, delusional and insane at the time of the stabbing."

At the present time, Branwell is in Forest Hospital, DesPlaines, awaiting psychiatric placement by the Mental Health Dept.

Nine are safe as Bucar's boat burns

by GLORIA DAVIS

An Antioch couple, and their family and friends, rubbed elbows with tragedy on Sunday, July 13, when their 33 foot cruiser inexplicably caught fire while three miles off Lake Michigan's shore, near Racine, Wis.

Dr. Al Bucar and his wife Phyllis and seven others were aboard their boat, the Ole, celebrating the 21st birthday of their son Jim, when the near calamity struck.

JIM BUCAR noticed the smoke coming from the bilge area at approximately 5:25 p.m.

By the time that the senior Bucar, an Antioch optometrist, reached the engines, a raging fire was already in progress.

Bucar says, "The fact that the tanks were carrying 150 gallons of fuel caused me to fear an explosion, so my first thought was to get these people off the boat."

EVERYBODY was nervously attempting to don their lifejackets, when an 18 foot fiberglass boat pulled alongside, braving the gasoline drenched water to take the passengers of the Ole aboard.

But since the rescue boat, driven by George Baker, Racine, already had four passengers on board, the addition of the rescued nine people started to sink the fiberglass boat.

Just then another cruiser, pulled alongside in a second and this time successful, rescue try.

Then the badly shaken survivors of the Ole were taken to the safety of the Kenosha dock.

The boat was later towed to shore, sinking in the process.

"IT WAS the most helpless and the worst feeling I've ever had," says the senior Bucar.

Phyllis Bucar described her reaction to this terrifying incident by saying, "I had told my son that I wanted this to be a birthday he would remember, and I'm sure he will."

She continues, "It was a series of dangerous incidents and from reports, we were close to death. It makes you feel that you should really do something important with the rest of your life."

Only two minor injuries were suffered. The junior Bucar's fiancée sustained leg lacerations while her mother had to have a fishhook removed from her foot.

The fact that the fire's origin has not been determined disturbs Bucar.

"We were just lucky that the boat didn't explode," he said, "I guess the full tanks were responsible for that."

Dr. Thain continues education

Dr. Alan L. Thain of Antioch has completed continuing education requirements to retain active membership in the American Academy of Family Physicians, the national association of family doctors. The academy formerly was called the American Academy of General Practice.

The requirements call for members to complete a minimum of 150 hours of accredited continuing medical study every three years.

Members become eligible for re-election at the end of the third year following their election to membership.

The academy, the country's second largest national medical association, was the first national medical group to require members to keep up with medical progress through continuing education.

The academy, founded in 1947 and headquartered in Kansas City, Mo., was instrumental in the establishment of a new primary specialty in family practice in 1969.

The new specialty is expected to increase the numbers of family physicians available to serve the public in the future.

The Academy of Family Physicians continuing education program is the foundation of eligibility for family doctors now in practice who apply for certification in the new specialty.

The rare, ever-miraculous beauty of the Lotus flower is again revealed to all who are wise enough to banish cares of everyday routine and the trivialities of a humdrum city existence. Ray Pregenzer, who has watched the blooming of the Lotus for many years, states there may be twice as many as last year. Every year thousands of tourists, sightseers, scientists, and nature lovers revel in the wondrous beauty of the glossy flower with its royal richness of color. Pilgrims come from all parts of the world to view what might well be termed the "eighth wonder of the world."

PAUL REVERE The Dentist

How about a little dental trivia? History records Paul Revere as the man who made the important ride on the night of April 18, 1775, as well as being a skilled silversmith. But the history books never mention the fact that Paul Revere was a practicing dentist. A student of John Baker, the first English dentist to come to America, Paul not only carved false teeth from ivory but concocted a dentifrice that contained abrasive substances and various mixtures such as cuttlebone, brown-sugar candy, saltpeter and gunpowder, butter and bread crumbs. We don't know if it sold too well.

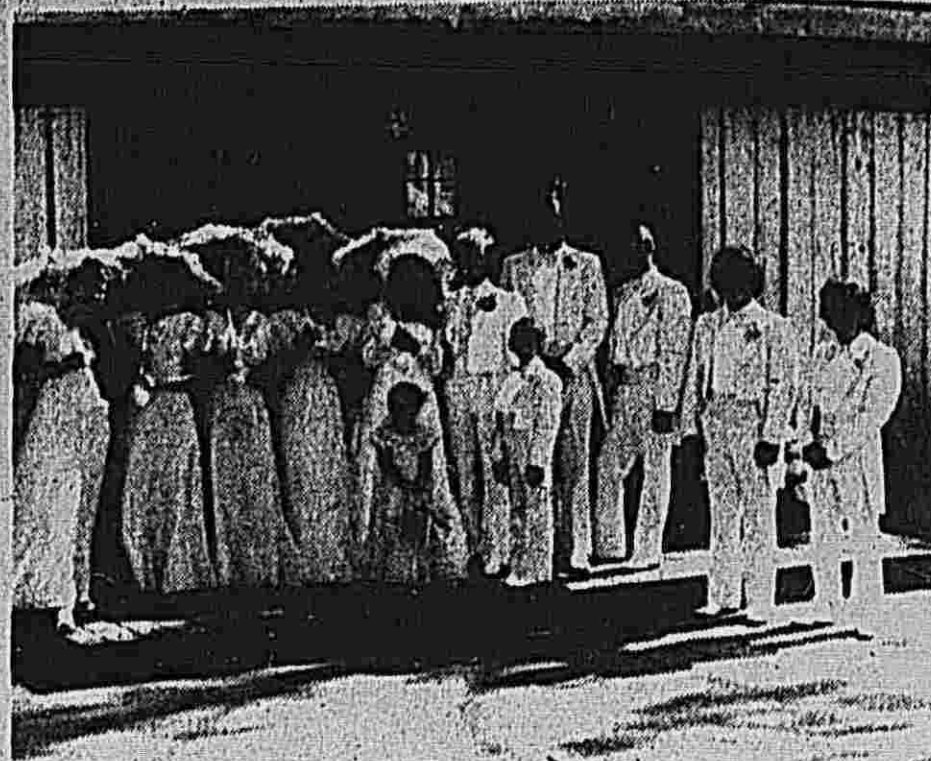

How far back does the use of nitrous oxide (laughing gas) go in the annals of dentistry? In 1884, Dr. Horace Wells, an American dentist, demonstrated the properties of nitrous oxide by using it on himself while having his own tooth extracted.

How much dental care is needed today? It has been estimated that if every dentist spent 24 hours a day, every day of the year, just filling cavities, there would still be one billion cavities left unfilled in the United States.

Carole finds homemaking is really a full-time job

Carole Miller, wife of Antioch's chief of police, Chuck Miller, obviously hasn't changed much physically from the 1960's teenager that she was when she met her husband, except that her jeans are now 1980's style.

Carole was born and bred in Antioch, attending St. Peter's grammar school and calling ACHS her alma mater.

She first met Chuck in high school and they started dating after he had graduated, when she was a junior.

They went together for almost three years, a courtship that weathered Chuck's stint in the U.S. Army.

THE MILLERS have two children, Kathi, 9, and Ron, 11, both attending Antioch Lower and Upper Grade Schools.

Although Carole worked at the Advertiser before they were married, she has spent most of her married life employed in her favorite occupation, that of being a homemaker and mother.

"I enjoy doing things around the house and being with the kids," she says.

"I think I'd miss doing the things I want to do with the kids if I was working," she continues.

Since the Miller home is nestled on the shores of Cross Lake, it's not hard to understand that her favorite warm weather activity is swimming and lying in the sun.

"I don't think we'd ever be happy not living on the lake," she admits.

She's just taken up racquetball and it's fast becoming her favorite kind of exercise.

Going back to the "little Miss Homemaker" bit, Carole loves to sew and makes a lot of her own and Kathi's clothes, even sewing some for Ron and Chuck.

Her own slim figure evidences her dislike of the cooking end of her job although her husband's ample build shows his approval of her culinary efforts or else he is one of the local restaurants' best customers.

The wife of Antioch's police chief is quiet and shy, so she leaves the organizational public life to her husband, proof of the old adage that opposites attract.

WHAT'S IT like being a top cop's first lady?

"A lot better than when he was a patrolman working longer and crazier hours," she says.

She also says that she's not frightened too much for her husband's safety because he doesn't tell her about the dangerous things. She also feels that he works in a comparatively quiet village.

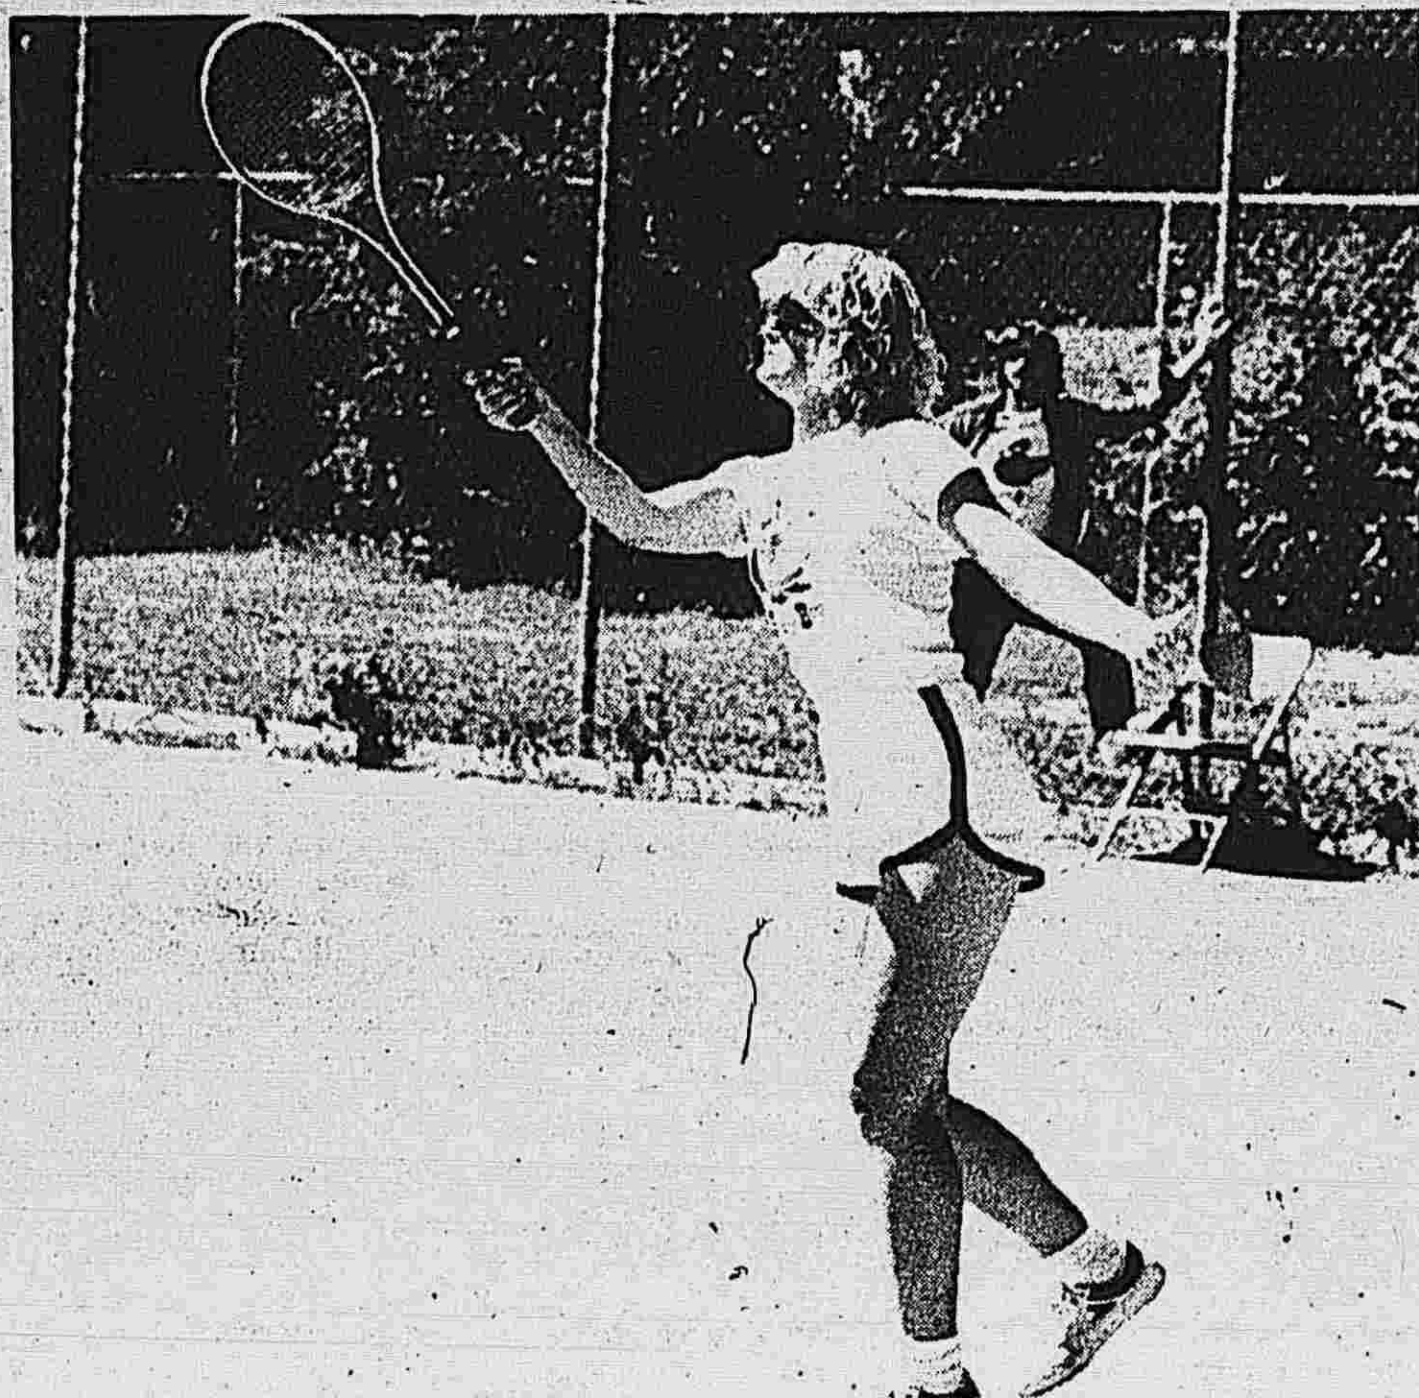

Carol finds that the only problem the children have being "a cop's kid," is that sometimes it affects their "expected" behavior.

Carole also admits that she isn't always as cautious as Chuck would like her to be because she is more trusting than her crime prevention oriented husband.

What's in Carole's future? Well, maybe some painting and wallpapering around the house this Fall when the kids go back to school, but for the present, just a lot more lying around in the sun, as long as the good weather lasts.

SHE WAS NUMBER TWO — Cathy Lipske stretches to return a volley during championship match at last year's State Bank of Antioch Youth Singles Tennis Tournament. Cathy took home a second place trophy in the girls 16-17 age division. This year's tournament will be held August 8 and 9, and all area boys and girls are encouraged to enter, whether they are experienced tennis players or just beginners. Entry blanks can be picked up at the State Bank, and must be turned in by August 1st to the Marketing Dept. at the State Bank.

A woman's place

When I think about it

Gloria hates to exercise yet laziness is craziness

by GLORIA DAVIS

There's a lot of emphasis today on action, activity and exercise, evidenced by the fast spreading jogging, tennis and racquetball crazes.

It's go, go, go, with the exercise parlors popping up on every corner.

Out of shape as I am, I stand flatfooted and perfectly still before you to state that trying to keep fit has me a half of a step in front of a fit!

Oh, I tried jogging and felt like my "in-nards" were trying very hard to become "outwards."

AND ALL I got out of tennis was a sprained arm from so many swings and misses.

As far as the exercise salons are concerned, one of their first requisites is that you show up clad in a skin tight, lump revealing leotard. I refuse to pay all that money just to make other people laugh.

Yet the reverse of all this hassle to erase your bussle is just as difficult.

HAVE YOU TRIED "just laying around," lately? Believe me, laying around can be hard work.

The other day I decided to lay in the sun in my yard.

First I had to lug out the yard furniture pads since we don't dare leave them out for fear of theft or mildew, whichever strikes first.

Then I went on a hunt for the suntan lotion which I had stored safely away last fall.

SO SAFELY IN fact, that it took me an hour of cupboard rummaging and climbing up and down the kitchen step-stool, just so I'd be able to "flash 'em a tan."

A few more trips back and forth for ice tea, cigarettes, a book and a transistor radio took place before I was finally able to collapse on the lounge.

BY THAT TIME the sun had shifted, so I had to get up and adjust positions.

Ah! Finally, a chance to relax in the sun with a good book!

But the hieroglyphics that danced before my eyes told me that I'd better get up again and get my glasses.

I DON'T REALLY need them you know unless I want to see any printing smaller than billboard size.

Back down on the lounge and within three sentences, the phone rang.

That's the way it went all afternoon. I probably got to spend a total of 10 minutes in a reclined position before I gave the whole thing up as a lost "pause".

I wonder what a body in this sad shape is supposed to do.

My tired old self refuses to rise to exercise but being lazy makes me crazy.

Jaycees in parade

On Sunday, July 6, the Antioch Jaycees were in Waukegan's Fourth of July Parade. Their entry was a truck pulling a boat with Jaycees skiing off the back.

Kevin Lyons rode a ski with wheels attached to the bottom, Jim Fritz was on roller skates, and Bob Dubs rode a skateboard.

Several Jaycees and Jayettes rode in the boat. The people along the parade route were very receptive and the Jaycees were greeted with applause all afternoon.

If you missed seeing the Waukegan parade, the Antioch Jaycees have agreed to have a similar entry in Libertyville's parade on August 23.

They plan on adding more skiers and better costumes.

The Jaycees feel that the only reason people won't applaud is because they will be rolling on the ground with laughter.

PM&L's 'Gigi' is almost here

PM&L's "Gigi" is almost here.

It won't be long before "Gigi," the delightfully tuneful Lerner and Loewe musical comedy, opens at the PM&L Theater, 877 Main St. in Antioch.

The opening performance is set for Friday night, August 1, with five later presentations scheduled for Fridays, Saturdays, and Sundays, August 2, 3, 8, 9, and 10. Curtain time for all six performances is 8:30 p.m.

Once the show opens, the theater-going community will again be agog with such well-known and widely-loved Lerner and Loewe musical numbers as "Thank Heaven for Little Girls," "Gigi," "The Night They Invented Champagne," the nostalgic tear-jerking "I Remember It Well," and the rousing can-can "At Maxim's."

PM&L's choreographer, Lyn Kessie of Richmond, has developed exciting and spirited dance routines which will be performed with these production numbers.

"Gigi" is directed by Barbara D. Miller, who is making her debut with PM&L. Her cast includes Larry Bullman of Ingleside as Honore; Bruce Berger, Lake Zurich, Gaston; Pam Guardi, Antioch, Liane; and, from McHenry, Michelle Patzke Jende as Gigi, Ann Marie Cina as Mamita, and Gloria Stewart as Alicia.

The large cast also features a number of other players and a spirited and talented singing and dancing chorus.

A large scale and vibrant musical comedy, "Gigi" tells a story of French manners, mores, and customs in the years before World War I, when the mere mention of the word "Paris" called up visions of music, gaiety, and romance.

The production is a major event for PM&L, which is preparing to enter its twentieth year of community theater. To be sure to see this lavish show, remember to call 395-3055 to make your reservations, and to be at the PM&L Theater no later than 8:15 p.m. on your night to enjoy "Gigi."

The day will begin with a swim meet at 9 a.m. and chicken dinners will go on sale from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Delicious sweet corn will be sold along with the chicken.

The Antioch Rescue Squads auction will start at 1:30 p.m. Articles for auction are still needed and anyone having things to be auctioned can call 395-1000.

The games for children and teenagers will start at 1:30 p.m. There will be a pie eating contest, money in hat game, balloon toss, egg toss and a watermelon seed spitting contest.

The pool will be open after the swim meet for everyone's enjoyment throughout the day.

As in the past, all proceeds for the barbecue will go for the support of the Antioch Rescue Squad, which has the lakes region's most up to date paramedic units.

The festivities will be brightened by the appearance of this year's Miss Antioch, Dawn Flashner.

Help the Lions make this another successful community project.

Hear tell that a strange bird will be seen mingling in the crowd, this from the lips of the head Bar-B-Que Chairmen.

INSURANCE INFORMATION

My sister recently moved to a town which has received a lot of rain resulting in near flood-conditions. She's looking for a house to buy and was wondering if she should have some kind of flood insurance. Would a normal Homeowner's policy provide this coverage?

No. Homeowner's policies specifically exclude flood, surface water or overflow of streams or other bodies of water. The only coverage available for such losses is provided through the National Flood Insurer's Association administered through the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). She needs to contact an insurance agent to see if her area has met the rules and regulations for approval of flood insurance, either through the emergency or the regular program.

Antioch wins Grant tourney

Registering a double win over Libertyville, the Antioch Senior League team swept the Grant High School Senior League district tournament and now moves into the sectional tournament at Marengo.

Antioch's first game will begin at 3:30 p.m., Saturday, July 26 at Marengo.

After winning their opening game last week against Great Lakes, Antioch advanced by defeating Libertyville, 2-0. Because of the tournament setup, Antioch then had to again meet Libertyville in the final game. Libertyville had advanced by eliminating Grant 15-1.

Tom Adams was the winning pitcher in the first game against Libertyville as Antioch scored singles runs in the third and seventh for the win. Both teams had entered the semi-final round undefeated.

Antioch scored its first run of the game in the third inning when with two outs Brad Herbst singled to left. John Silianoff drew a walk, sending Herbst to second and catcher Andy Lehn singled up the middle to score Herbst.

Antioch's second run came in the seventh inning when Carl Amundsen singled and advanced to second when Les Zitkus walked.

Amundsen then scored when Herbst singled to left. Adams pitched an outstanding game in gaining the shutout, allowing only four scattered singles and three walks.

In the district finale, Amundsen went the distance on the mound for Antioch, giving up only four hits, all singles scattered throughout the game. Amundsen was backed by outstanding defensive play and timely hitting. John Silianoff had one putout and six assists on defense at second base for Antioch.

Antioch took command of the game in the bottom of the first inning, scoring two runs on a double to center by John Mahar and single by Jerry Haling.

Haling scored by stealing second and going to third on an overthrow and home on a passed ball.

They added another run in the third when John Mahar walked, stole second and scored on a single by Jerry Haling. Another run was scored in the fifth when John Humphreys hit a long double over the center fielder's head. Humphreys went to third on a grounder by Mahar and scored on a passed ball.

The final run came in the sixth inning with leadoff batter Tom Adams singling to left-center, stealing second and third and scoring on a wild pitch.

Harris, Golubeff, Rausch win Wilmot features

Whitey Harris, Lake Villa, won his second Wednesday night SCRAM 25-lap late model feature at Kenosha County Speedway July 16 by topping the WXLC Radio main event.

Five yellow flags plagued the event. Don Collins led the first three laps. Wayne Welch took top spot after a caution period on the next lap.

Then Harris took the lead on lap five. The two-time Wilmot modified champion maintained the lead throughout the remainder of the race with Mike Melius, fast qualifier and point leader, pressuring him all of the way, but settling for second.

HEAT WINNER Bill Prietzel, Ted Dolhun and Gordie Seegert, Jr. rounded out the top five.

Dave Zillmer, Mike Bicanic and Chick Stolarik all won their first Wednesday heats of the season with Joe Torri winning the semi-feature.

Greg Golubeff, Oak Creek, won the SCRAM 20-lap feature for sportsman, his first main event win of the season.

Jeff Wasckiewicz, Tony Garbowski, Jeff Brook and point leader Al Tietzen rounded out the top five spots.

JOHN BOWERS led until lap 11 when John Datka got by him. Datka's lead was just two laps as a flat tire forced him out. Golubeff then took over and maintained it to the finish.

Darrel Traber and Lee Sohns won their first sportsman heats of the season. Eddie Lemay won the semi-feature.

Dan Rausch, Kenosha, became the first Wilmot driver in any division this season to win three consecutive features as he topped the 15-lap spectator main event for the third night in a row. He also posted fast time.

Rick Lawrence, Dennis Carlton, heat winner and point leader Lyle Derler and Tom DeKeuster finished behind Rausch in the top five.

LLOYD RICKS won his first race of the season in a heat.

The WXLC Radio race was won by Larry Leafblad driving Dan Derler's car as Rich Mosher, in Don McClellan's Camaro, spun out coming for the checkered flag. Bud Mercer finished second in DeKeuster's car, Mosher third, and Kevin Jay, in Larry Derler's mount, placed fourth after spinning twice.

Wednesday, July 23, is AMERIGAS night with Saturday, July 26, being WRKR Radio night.

4-H news

The Town and Country 4-H Club had a Mini Fair at Antioch High School.

All the 4-H'ers and their families attended the special achievement night activity. They brought items to show as they would at the County Fair.

George Taylor demonstrated how to make a wooden stool, and Jenny Mayer described her ceramics.

What lures and weights to use for fishing was explained by John Wierschem, while Tom Schroeder told about his rabbits.

Goats were the topic of conversation for Julie Wierschem.

EVERYONE brought projects to be exhibited. Julie Carpenter and Tracie Rusher displayed their reading posters, while Jeanne and Chris Marsh, Tracie, and Lorna Whitton exhibited some of their sewing articles.

Gary Weinberger presented a display dealing with goat care, and Lisa Mayer showed some of her ceramics.

HOLLY TAYLOR, Julie, Tracie, Chris and Lorna, the cooks in the club, brought the tasty treats for the evening. Goat milk and goat butter served on crackers were the highlight choice of the food.
